

BEGINNER FOUNDATIONAL HAND

Tutor: Sally Diserio

Returning in our Beginner Series, the Calligraphy Society is running a weekly workshop over 6 weeks to learn the Foundational Hand. Devised by Edward Johnston (known as the father of Modern Calligraphy) this style is based on studies of 9th and 10th Century manuscripts in particular the Ramsey Psalter. Tutor, Sally Diserio is keen to inspire novice calligraphers into discovering the delights of writing with ink on paper.

Students will also learn the basics of stroke sequence, spacing, and proportion vital for beautiful lettering.

If you have already had some instruction but wish to refresh your skills you are also welcome to join the class.

When: Thursdays – 22nd February, 1st, 8th, 22nd 29th March, 5th April (Note; no class on 15th March)

Time: 7.00pm - 9.00pm

Where: West Hawthorn Uniting Church Hall, 10 Power Street Hawthorn, enter from Grove Road
Suitable for people with or without any calligraphic experience. No lettering skills required.
